First Home Bank also offers an extremely attractive 401(k) plan through Mass Mutual, with advisory service provided by Merrill Lynch. The Bank believes that saving for retirement is critically important for our employees and their families.

The Bank provided an exceptional combined contribution of 7% of total overall employee compensation in 2020, if the employee contributed at a 4% level, or 5% of total employee compensation if the employee elected not to contribute at all. The 401(k) plan has two components that make up the contributions to the plan, with a possible third contribution.

- 401(k) Mass Mutual Insurance – Eligibility to enroll on the first of the month after 60 days of employment. Company match of 50% of the first 4% of base salary contribution
- 401(k) Mass Mutual Insurance – All employees are enrolled in the Safe Harbor – 3% contribution of base salary, eligibility the first of the month after 60 days of employment. 100% vested
- Profit Sharing Contribution – A discretionary contribution approved by the Board of Directors annually may be made to either the 401(k) or Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) for all eligible employees
